

Alltech Career Development Program Looking for Candidates in All Disciplines.
<http://education.alltech.com/alltech-corporate-career-development-program>

The 12-months contract, full-time, annually salaried position for entry-level professionals begins with an intensive induction and three month training period at Alltech's global headquarters in Lexington, Kentucky, USA. After this, members will be placed in crucial support roles encompassing a wide range of responsibilities within our various departments.

The induction will provide an overview of the company and include training in the areas of team building, leadership, presentation skills and working in a multi-cultural environment. Participants will be exposed to senior leadership and an array of company resources.

After the initial 3-months, members of the program will be placed in roles that fulfil established company needs under the supervision of a line manager. These mentors will provide regular advice and feedback on progress and conduct periodic reviews.

In addition to great hands-on experience and practical knowledge, you will become a vital part of a close-knit, cross-functional team of peers to whom you can turn throughout the program and your career.

You will also be introduced to president and founder, Dr. Pearse Lyons, and several leading personalities from the Alltech team. These connections will foster professional development and growth.

Our goal is to retain the talent nurtured throughout the year. Upon successful completion of the program, members will be ready to expand contributions to the company's overall growth strategy!
